

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

The following specifications should be taken into account in order to expedite the editorial process:

Submissions are considered for publication on the understanding that authors grant ANTHROPOS the exclusive right to publish them.

Texts should be delivered in the form that would require only minor editorial changes. ANTHROPOS reserves for itself the right to make editorial revisions, although no major changes will be introduced without the author's approval. All texts will be peer-reviewed and this process may last 4-6 weeks.

Manuscripts should be delivered electronically in WORD or (particularly if the text contains special characters) in PDF format. Print copies, typed on one side only, will be also accepted. Double spacing is required for all materials, including quotations, references cited, notes, captions, and headings. Footnotes should be kept to a minimum and numbered consecutively. Book reviews should contain no footnotes and no bibliography.

All manuscripts should be accompanied by an abstract (in English) of not more than 150 words and by relevant data about the author's academic career and status (in the language of the article; not exceeding 100 words), as well as his/her most recent publications. The abstract should end with a bracketed list of five or six index words or phrases.

References cited, abstract, tables, and illustrations should be sent as separate files. Illustrative material (drawings, charts, diagrams, and photographs) should be submitted in a form suitable for publication. Photographs (in JPG, PDF, or TIFF formats) should be of high quality, good contrast, and with a resolution of at least 300 dpi.

Proofs, sent to authors electronically in PDF format, should be returned in two weeks' time. No major text alterations will be accepted at this stage. Certain changes and additions may also be disregarded at the discretion of the editor.

Authors of articles receive a complimentary copy of the journal as well as an electronic copy of their contribution for private use only. Reviewers obtain an electronic copy of their contribution (PDF). Authors are therefore asked to provide their mailing address for the one-time distribution of the complimentary copies. The addresses will not be published.

References to publications should be included in the text, not in the footnotes. They should be given by the name of the author, the year of publication, and the number of the page, e.g.:

[...] as Sapir has noted (1921: 39) ...

Sapir has already said: "All grammars leak" (1921: 39).

[...] the well-known maxim: "All grammars leak" (Sapir 1921: 39) ...
